Kirkcudbright Spring Fling at Cannonwalls and Claverhouse

Cannonwalls and Claverhouse

You can meet six very different artists all under the same roof in Kirkcudbright at Cannonwalls and Claverhouse this year for a real insight into their working studios and practice besides a total of 80 open studios across Dumfries and Galloway.

Laura Derby hand tufts tactile wool pile textiles and upholsters local hardwood stools. Maggie Ayres creates abstract, emotionally expressive paintings. Katy Quinn forms glass and precious metals into ethereal beauty. Michael Johnson composes large chalk and ink transmissions of joy in the local area. Cat Coulson's practice culminates in ephemeral, intimate paintings of nature. David Quinn produces his unashamedly dark fine art photography.
